JULIUS M. WILENSKY RECOMMENDS HARBOR BEACH CLUB IN "CRUISING CAPE COD" ...

AND THIS IS WHAT HE SAYS IN THE OCTOBER ISSUE OF

"EASTERN SEA COMBINED WITH RUDDER"

"I consider Aucoot Cove, which is just around Converse Point from Sippican Harbor, too wide open for an overnight anchorage. However, it does offer an unusually good dinner opportunity. Harbor Beach Club served us the best dinner we've ever had in Buzzards Bay. Situated at the tip of the point, it has excellent views of the Bay from either of its two stories. They have entertainment nightly and dancing Saturday night. If you're at Marion the club may be able to provide transportation or you could call a cab. If you're in Aucoot Cove and want to dine at Harbor Beach Club, land your dink at the float at the end of the stone pier on the east side of their property. There's a hard sand launching ramp south of the stone pier, and a small beach north of it.

"Aucoot Cove Boat Yard has 20 moorings, Gulf gas, complete engine and hull repairs, marine hardware, and a concrete launching ramp. They are the home of Edey & Duff, builders of the Stone Horse fiberglass sloop."

in location preserved the old district in a most remarkable way. The older buildings are emerging now from a long period of useful neglect. Useful because the old buildings have remained part of the working district in a "second hand Rose" sort of way. When John Houston filmed "Moby Dick" he had to take his crew to Ireland to find a locale to represent New Bedford in the early 1800's. Now, thanks to the great metamorphosis of the Historic District, early New Bedford could be filmed right on the very streets among the buildings intact and standing as they were. The cobblestone streets, the slate sidewalks, the new trees growing and the newly painted

The Tomkiewiczes would much rather follow our red brick path.

Both Walter and Peggy Tomkiewicz say they like banking with us because of the many, many services we provide and the way we treat them.

Whether they bank inside, or outside at one of our drive-up windows, doesn't matter. The Tomkiewiczes, like so many of our customers, would rather take a few minutes longer to drive to our place than bank at several others closer to home.

The way we see it — just like the Tomkiewiczes of North Dartmouth — there are banks and there is our bank.

Even the younger members of the family — John and Patricia — like banking with us.

Centre Street once rumbled under the horse drawn carts heavily laden with the material of a seagoing populace. The street, cobblestoned once again, is returned almost to its original appearance. Looking west up the hill that runs into the Whaling Museum, the Caleb Spooner home built in 1806 stands next to the Henry Beetle homestead built in 1804 and both have newly restored facades. On the corner is an old brick warehouse, on the right hand side of the same street are the Tallman warehouse, circa 1790, and the William Maxfield building built in 1840. Around the corner on Water Street work is presently in progress to cobblestone the street and to lay the slate walks. The old store fronts line the street just as they have all these years, but the restoration of the street cobbles, the street lanterns and new trees are transforming the down-at-the-heel appearance to its 19th century charm thanks to the vision and effort of John Bullard and his group and all of his workmen. Looking in one window of the William Maxfield building you can see a heavy desk with an old oaken swivel chair. With a little imagination you can hear the thees and thous of the Quaker clerks still upon the air mingled with the shroud of dust from the early years.

DUFF PLUMBING ANNOUNCES

We have added another truck to our fleet expressly for the Marion, Wareham & Rochester area residents. We have had such an increase in calls that we have decided to install a direct, toll-free "Hot Line" for these customers. We have our plumber, Chet, who is a local resident and knows the area well. He will have a well-stocked supply of plumbing needs right at hand.

Are you disappointed to find yourself waiting two days for a plumber, then have him arrive with a helper to carry the tool box, and receive a bill for two men? We pride ourselves on sending one man on service calls.

We take good care of our old customers; it's new customers we are looking for.

STUDENTS PLANT SPRING BULBS

The Mattapoisett Land Trust, Inc. invited the third grade class at Center School to participate in the planting of spring bulbs on Friday, October 21st, at its land adjacent to the Town Wharf complex. (Water Street foot of Pearl Street) This last unspoiled acre of village waterfront property is of historical significance as the site of Mattapoisett's first shipyard and was donated to the Land Trust in 1976 for preservation purposes by Mrs. Willis Munro. Beginning at 8:45 A.M. and continuing until 2:30 P.M. five sections of the third grade class planted 400 daffodil and crocus bulbs. It is hoped this area will be a focal point of beauty in the spring.

the acts are coming in fast and furious - but it's never too late to join the fun. Keep in mind that It's No Crime to Get Gonged! Some are even saying that Getting Gonged is the whole idea! Well, we'll leave that up to the panel of infamous judges to decide on Saturday, November 5, at 8 P.M. In the meantime, "Don't Be a Closet Case - bring your act out of the closet and share your talent with the world. Just a few of the thousands of possibilities spring to mind: imitations (of people, animals, things), stand-up comedy routines, sit-down comedy routines, unicycling, hog calling, baton twirling, pantomimes, magic acts, folk singing, rope twirling and lassoing, bird calls, acrobatics, jazz band or combo, Russian Cossack dance, belly dancing, snake charming, psychokinetics, clowns, fife and drum, fancy yo yo twirling, singing, yodeling, one "man" band, T.V. takeoffs, vignettes, animal acts (non-ferocious), Indian dancing, play an instrument even a homemade one, scenes from movies, honky-tonk piano, karate act, Irish step dancing, hula-hula, comedy skits, Rockettes, or ANY Ridiculous combination of the above! Call Talent Experts Mrs. Lois Murray at 758-4949 or Mrs. Estelle Biehl at 758-2831 for your place on the program.

Moderator John Atkinson and Judges Clara Morgan, John Pandolfi, Claire Keene and "Sonny" Costa will be honing their skills over Halloween and if we can keep them from leaving town during the show you'll see the Big winners - and losers - giving their ALL to benefit the Scholarship Fund.

BUS DISCIPLINE POLICY

At a meeting of the Mattapoisett School Committee conducted on October 17th the following bus policy was approved: Inasmuch as the safety of all children riding a bus to and from school is of paramount concern, if a child on a bus is behaving in a manner that endangers the safe operation of the bus, the bus driver or matron will report the child to the Principal. If, in fact, the child has misbehaved on the bus or behaved in a manner that endangers the safety of the bus, the parents will be notified of the incident. If there is a reoccurrence, the child will lose his/her bus privileges for a period of 3 school days while the child is in attendance at school. A further repeat of his actions will result in a complete loss of his bus privileges for a period of one month (20 school days).

Parents will be notified of the action in a Group of the Mattapoissett Woman's Club on Thursday, October 27th, to tour the lovely Martha Coggeshall Memorial in Fairhaven. The home and many of the beautiful antique furnishings of the late Mrs. Martha Coggeshall were donated as a "deed of gift" to the Fairhaven Colonial Club in 1916. Mrs. Coggeshall had been a devoted member of the club originally known as "Colonial Dames", and also left provisions for preservation and maintenance of building and grounds, the only restriction being that no funds be allowed to provide collations for its entertainments.

The tour leaves by private cars from the Mattapoissett Congregational Church at 9:30 A.M. and returns there by noon. For further information call Mrs. Margaret Smith at 758-2426 or join the group that morning.

Tabor Music Festival

"THAT OLD BACH MAGIC"

The Fall Music Festival at Tabor Academy promises to captivate its audience with a wondrous web of musical magic. Subtitled "Suite & Sour Bach" - the evening's performance will center on the music of the great J.S. and his spurious offspring P.D.Q. Bach. Ann Danis of Fall River will act as Concert Master of the Bayside Chamber Orchestra in a rendering of Bach's Suite No. 3 in D with its famous "Air on the G String". Ken Wilbur, Anthony Rego and Robert Perry will play trumpet and Robert Chandler-timpani. Mr. Michael Pavone, Director of Music, will be conductor while James Yeung, a Tabor Senior, will play keyboard.

Highlighting the evening will be 40 girls from the Wheeler School in Providence joining forces with 20 boys of the Tabor Chorus and the orchestra in a rendition of P.D.Q. Bach's hilarious spoof on classical oratorio: "The Seasonings". Polly and Priscilla Maynard of Wareham will sing the soprano and alto solos while Peter West of Mattapoissett and Jerry Dyke of Dart-

Theater Arts

The Theater Arts Project is planning a series of plays based on the concept of Creative Dramatics. These performances will take place in the local elementary, junior and senior high schools during the months of November and December.

In order to present the most comprehensive program, we have selected four plays to be presented according to age/grade grouping (K-2, 3 & 4, 5 & 6, junior and senior high schools). Creative Dramatics is a concept which encompasses the natural use of dramatic involvement; and, therefore, does not require highly schooled "professional" performers.

Artworks

On October 30, ARTWORKS in conjunction with the New Bedford Arts Center will offer a double retrospective exhibition of artists Peter London and Richard Pacheco. The opening reception will be held from 2-5 at the Center on 71 Maxfield Street. The show provides a large and varied selection of each artist's work from 1967-1977. The retrospective is entitled "Reflections of Things Past". Both artists felt the idea of a retrospective was an important one in order to show the "sense of evolution" of the artist.

Dr. Peter London is presently the President of the Public Arts Council (PAC) and Chairman of the Art Education Department of Southeastern Massachusetts University. Dr. London studied painting in New York City and received an MFA from Columbia University. He received his doctorate from Columbia in Education in 1970. His paintings are in more than 150 private collections across the continent. His works are also in the collections of Concordia University, the Beaulieu Art Institute in Montreal and Queens College of Columbia University Teachers' College. He has exhibited his paintings at the Museum of Contemporary
